

WHERE JESUS WALKED

---

Lyrics: Phil Thomson

A heavenly light
in ordinary places
His common path
all glory has ordained Christ of the feast
Christ of the fields of famine
How Jesus shared in every joy and pain!

He walked this earth
and touched each life with wonder
in every dance
in every secret tear
Christ for the child
Christ for the heartless armies
What worlds were changed whenever He drew near!

Oh can you hear
the echo of His laughter?
and can you feel
the comfort of His gaze?
Christ in the crowd
Christ in the desperate silence Look how He longed to fill each heart with praise!

Oh can you see where once we had been strangers
His Father's eyes
the light upon His face?
Christ of each dream
Christ of each waking moment
A world made new
a miracle of grace!
